ceo notes

With spring comes the joy and appreciation of renewal, and I am excited about the future as we continue our 26th season and deeply grateful to our dedicated volunteers, many of whom have served the Kravis Center for years. Our performances would not be possible without our volunteer ushers, who deserve a standing ovation, along with the volunteers who graciously give their time on our Board of Directors and committees, and as Life Trustees. Other volunteer duties include providing hospitality services, leading tours, and handling administrative and other tasks. We applaud this outstanding group, who will be honored at an invitation-only Volunteer Salute on April 16 in the Cohen Pavilion as part of National Volunteer Week, and I invite you to support your community and the cultural arts by becoming a Kravis Center volunteer.

Judith A. Mitchell
Chief Executive Officer

Looking ahead, I am thrilled to share that next season's highly anticipated Kravis On Broadway series includes classic favorites and critically acclaimed newcomers: Rock of Ages, the '80s hits extravaganza on its 10th anniversary tour; the beloved Tony Award winner Hello, Dolly! starring Betty Buckley; the inspirational On Your Feet!, the story of Gloria and Emilio Estefan, the Cuban couple who soared to pop music fame and nearly lost it all; the legendary Les Misérables, with glorious new staging and scenery; the debut of Waitress, which celebrates friendship, motherhood and dessert; the hilarious, high-octane School of Rock The Musical; and the eagerly awaited Disney's The Lion King.

And coming to the Kravis Center during the 2019-2020 season: Hamilton, the most talked about musical in decades! For the best ticket prices and seat selection for next season and beyond, we encourage you to become a series subscriber. Subscriptions for the 2018-2019 season were offered to current subscribers in March and will be offered to non-subscriber donors in May and to the general public in June. By becoming a donor and supporting our Annual Campaign, you will be among the first to buy a Kravis On Broadway subscription prior to the public sale. Also, if you subscribe for next season and renew in 2019-2020, you will secure your seats for Hamilton and more. For information, please see kravis.org/membership or call 561.651.4320.

There are still many curtain calls to come this season as we welcome extraordinary organ duo David Baskeyfield and Thomas Gaynor, who will perform as part of our Young Artists Series on the Kravis Center's George W. Mergens Memorial Organ on April 5; trumpet player and consummate showman Chris Botti on April 18; American Idol winner Ruben Studdard, starring in Always and Forever: An Evening of Luther Vandross, on May 13; and many other spectacular performers. For tickets, please see the Kravis Center's official website kravis.org or call the Box Office at 561.832.7469.

The Kravis Center offers amazing shows and arts education programs thanks to generous support from more than 11,000 donors and from guests who attend our two fundraisers each season, the Gala and the Palm Beach Wine Auction. As we plan for the future, I invite you to help the Kravis Center continue its mission through an enduring gift to the Permanently Restricted Endowment Fund. Endowment donors are honored as members of the Helen K. Persson Society and are listed in Kravis Center publications (unless anonymity is requested) and invited to Persson Society events. To learn how the Center can help you meet long-term philanthropic goals, please call our Development Department at 561.651.4320.

Thank you for making the Kravis Center your Center as we set the stage for decades to come as both a world-class entertainment venue and community arts leader. Best wishes for a wonderful spring! ▲

The spirit of the season filled Dreyfoos Hall during the Kravis Center's 26th Annual Gospel Gala performance on December 14, 2017. Award-winning gospel artist Kirk Whalum along with celebrated jazz great Jonathan Butler shared the stage with an array of special guests to inspire and uplift, continuing the Center's long tradition of bringing gospel music to the community. A Gospel According to Jazz Christmas featured artists John Stoddart, Sheléa, Kevin Whalum and a pre-performance presentation by jazz vocalist Donna Singer. Broadway Reach Broadens Horizons...

ALL THE WAY TO THAILAND!

The Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts recently celebrated the culmination of a three-year expansion of its Broadway Reach arts education program with a performance by students from Lantana Elementary, Egret Lake Elementary, Glade View Elementary and U.B. Kinsey/Palmview Elementary prior to a matinee performance of Rodgers and Hammerstein's The King and I. Students' artwork related to the performance was also displayed in Dreyfoos Lobby.

The students' performance and art exhibition were the culmination of a fall semester project in the third year of the Broadway Reach program. The Center received a $106,500 grant from the Community Foundation for Palm Beach and Martin Counties to expand Broadway Reach, a program designed to provide sequential arts education and exposure to live Broadway touring productions to nearly 100 underserved children annually from neighborhood afterschool programs.

This year's program focus was on visual art, dance and voice through the study of the culture and history of Thailand, the setting for The King and I. The students worked with teaching artists to craft paper lanterns and elephants from palm tree husks, learn a song medley from the musical, and stage a dance piece to the musical's iconic song, "Getting to Know You." The students and their family members also enjoyed a performance of Rodgers and Hammerstein's The King and I, as well as a catered lunch and a special meet-and-greet with the cast.

For more than 25 seasons, the Kravis Center has helped students of all ages fuel their imaginations and expand their lives through comprehensive arts education programs. Last season, nearly 60,000 children from Palm Beach, Broward, Martin, St. Lucie and Okeechobee counties attended performances through the *S*T*A*R Series*. ▲

Kravis Education Committee SPEAKS UP for ARTS EDUCATION

Dr. Robert Avossa, Judy Mitchell

The Education Committee of the Kravis Center, a standing committee of the Center's Board of Directors, hosted three lectures this year featuring guest speakers with insight into the value of the arts in education.

In November, the Education Committee, chaired by Dr. Barbara Golden, gathered in the Kravis Center's Shapiro Founders' Room to hear Dr. Robert Avossa, superintendent of the School District of Palm Beach County. Avossa shared his updated goals for the school district and his vision leading into 2018 and beyond, sharing highlights of the district's 2016-2021 Strategic 5-Year Plan.

Goals include increasing the county's high school graduation rate from 88.3 to 90 percent, as well as completion of more than $1.3 billion in school improvement projects funded by the penny sales tax approved in 2016.

In February, the speakers' series hosted Paul McEneaney, Artistic Director of Cahoots NI, an award-winning professional children's theater company based in Belfast, Northern Ireland. Tracy C. Butler, Director of Education, interviewed Mr. McEneaney prior to the *S*T*A*R Series* presentation of Shh! We Have a Plan in Persson Hall.

Alex Dreyfoos, Jane Mitchell, Dr. Robert Avossa

McEneaney shared his artistic vision for Cahoots NI and his creative approach to directing plays for young people. Shh! We Have a Plan is the nonverbal tale of a family adventure through the woods that leads to madcap efforts to capture a beautiful bird. The story is filled with magic, music and puppetry and based on the Chris Haughton book of the same name.

The Education Committee's events concluded with a March appearance via Skype by Amy Duma, Director of School Programs at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., who discussed the Center's CETA (Changing Education Through the Arts) Schools Arts Integration Research findings.

Amanda Lebow Distenfeld and Ava Parker present Morgan Kennedy with top prize

The Ninth Annual Alan Lebow Awards for Excellence in Shakespearean Performance were presented to 10 Palm Beach County students from four local high schools at a ceremony on January 27th in the Kravis Center's Khoury Family Dance Rehearsal Hall.

Created by Kids' Dreams, Inc., in memory of its co-founder, Alan Lebow, the award honors students from Title I high schools who perform short selections from William Shakespeare's works before a panel of distinguished judges. The students performed their selections during an audition on January 13. They were evaluated and scored by three judges in five categories of performance: concentration, emotional commitment, energy, evidence of understanding and overall performance.

The Top Winner, earning a $1,000 cash prize, was Morgan Kennedy, a junior at Boynton Beach Community High School. Two other Top Winners, Daniel Powers and Mitchell Saulog, both seniors at Royal Palm Beach Community High School, each earned $750. Kennedy, who had earned an Honorable Mention in the 2017 competition, performed a monologue from Much Ado About Nothing.

Three students earned Honorable Mention awards and $500 each: Ashley Rivas, a senior at Boynton Beach Community High School, Carlos Riviera, a senior at Atlantic High School and Kathleen Wilkinson, a junior at Boynton Beach Community High School. Four other students received recognition as Distinguished Participants and earned $250 each. A total of $5,000 was given to the top 10 winners.

Judith Mitchell, Chief Executive Officer of the Kravis Center, welcomed guests to the Lebow Awards ceremony and recognized Patricia Lebow, president and co-founder of Kids' Dreams, for her commitment to providing arts opportunities for children in the community. She also welcomed this year's award presenter Amanda Lebow Distenfeld, Vice President of Kids' Dreams and daughter of Alan and Patricia Lebow. In 2015, Kids' Dreams made a gift to the Kravis Center to permanently endow the Lebow Award.

Palm Beach State College President Ava Parker gave the keynote address, and after the ceremony, all the students who had participated in the Lebow Award program were invited to attend a performance of Shakespeare's Hamlet. The performance, produced by Aquila Theatre Company, was held in the Kravis Center's Rinker Playhouse. ▲

CAPTIVATING CONVERSATIONS

Popular ARTSMART LUNCH & LEARN Series Highlights Former NYCB dancer Wendy Whelan; Broadway Titans: Fran Weissler, Roy Furman & Rodger Hess; and The Fondas

Three popular events were featured in the Kravis Center's 2017-2018 ArtSmart Lunch & Learn series. Lee Wolf and Steven Caras co-chair the series in association with the Kravis Center Cultural Society.

New York City Ballet dancer Wendy Whelan captivated those attending the first of the popular series on January 22nd. The event, titled Wendy Whelan: Former New York City Ballet Member, Her Rise from Anomaly to Stardom, was a dancer-to-dancer conversation with fellow NYCB alumnus, Steven Caras. The luncheon was sponsored by Susan Bloom.

One-of-a-kind ballet dancer Whelan started out her career inspiring company directors Jerome Robbins and Peter Martins to feature her uniqueness. Now 50 years old, following hip surgery and a glorious farewell at NYCB, Whelan dances on, collaborating with today's most innovative contemporary choreographers.

The subsequent February 19th Lunch & Learn event, Broadway Titans: The Life of a Broadway Producer was a panel discussion moderated by Lee Wolf. Leona F. Chanin sponsored the luncheon.

Three successful Broadway producers shared their unique roles in bringing blockbuster shows to Broadway. Roy Furman took home three Tonys in 2017 for Dear Evan Hansen, Hello Dolly! and Sweat (adding to his collection of dozens more including Evita, The Color Purple and The Book of Mormon). Fran Weissler, along with her husband Barry, won Tonys for Chicago, Waitress, Pippin, La Cage Aux Folles, Gypsy and others. Rodger Hess is known for his Broadway & Touring hits, which include The Great Comet of 1812, All My Sons, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and the tours of Evita, Annie and A Chorus Line.

The final program of the Lunch & Learn series, The Fondas: A Conversation with Lee Wolf and Steven Caras, on March 19th delved deeply into the colorful and complex lives of the Fondas. This luncheon was sponsored by Leona F. Chanin.

The Artsmart Lunch & Learn series is held in the Kravis Center's Cohen Pavilion and includes a lunch prepared by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center.

Lunch & Learn events often sell out. If you are not a current member and would like the opportunity to order tickets in advance, we encourage you to become an annual donor. African-American Film Festival Celebrates 'YOUNG, GIFTED and BLACK' FILMS

This February, the African-American Film Festival celebrated 13 years of showcasing important African-American actors, directors, writers and producers and their contribution to the film industry. This year's theme highlighted the "Young, Gifted and Black" in film.

The festival opened on February 5 with 1972's Depression-era saga Sounder, the story of a family of struggling sharecroppers desperate to find enough to eat, starring Paul Winfield and Cicely Tyson. The festival continued February 12 with a screening of The Wiz (1978), starring Diana Ross as a Harlem teacher trying to save her dog from a storm and is whisked to an urban fantasy land called Oz. And on February 26, the festival concluded with To Sir, With Love, the 1967 story of an out-of-work engineering school graduate, Mark Thackeray (Sidney Poitier), who takes a job teaching at a rough school in London's East End to pay the bills.

The African-American Film Festival, founded by James Drayton, has presented 39 films beginning with Stormy Weather, Within These Gates and Sankofa in 2005. Each season, a series of films is selected that are not only entertaining, but provide an educational experience. Prior to each screening, host AnEta Sewell presents a 20-minute talk and following each film she leads a lively question-and-answer session which allows the guests to exchange ideas and share personal experiences related to the film.

The hosting community organization for the African-American Film Festival is Kappa Upsilon Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

The festival is presented as part of the Kravis Center's ArtSmart Continuing Arts Education series, which offers a full range of educational presentations that provide new perspectives on the world of the performing arts and enrich life experiences. For more information, please visit kravis.org. ▲

SPOTLIGHT on YOUNG MUSICIANS

JOINS KRAVIS CENTER IN CELEBRATING 26 SEASONS OF STUDENT PERFORMANCES

High School Honors Choir: Under the direction of Jamie Bryan

Youth Orchestra of Palm Beach County String Orchestra

The Kravis Center, in partnership with the Youth Orchestra of Palm Beach County, the School District of Palm Beach County and the Palm Beach County Music Teachers Association, will celebrate the 26th year of Spotlight on Young Musicians with a showcase performance in Dreyfoos Hall on May 11.

Crossing the threshold from practice to stage is every music student's dream, and the Kravis Center has been helping to make that dream a reality for more than 25 years. Since 1992, nearly 17,500 students have performed in the annual Spotlight on Young Musicians. The eagerly anticipated annual event not only showcases emerging talent but also promotes the excellent choral and instrumental music programs within area schools.

"The Kravis Center is thrilled that Spotlight has been a staple of our Dreyfoos Hall stage since we opened in 1992," said Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO. "It's an honor to host the hundreds of talented young people in our community who delight audiences each year with their musical abilities."

Spotlight was the brainchild of Annette Johnson, President of the Palm Beach County Music Teachers Association, Pearl Krepps, Fine Arts Planner for the School District of Palm Beach County, and Millicent Duval, manager of the Youth Orchestra of Palm Beach County. These women found they had similar missions: to create a "showcase" where local music students could perform for family and friends. It was a dream in search of a proper venue, and it found a home at the Kravis Center.

Spotlight on Young Musicians is sponsored by The Meshberg Family in loving memory of Julia and Philip Meshberg.

For more than 25 seasons, the Kravis Center has helped students of all ages fuel their imaginations and expand their lives through comprehensive arts education programs. Last season, nearly 60,000 children from Palm Beach, Broward, Martin, St. Lucie and Okeechobee counties attended performances through the *S*T*A*R Series*. The Center's Admission Waiver Program ensures that no child is denied access to a performance based on ability to pay. For more information, please contact the Kravis Center's Education Department at 561.651.4251 or visit kravis.org. ▲

During the dinner, Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO, welcomed and thanked the Dress Circle members saying, “Because of your generosity, last season we exceeded our annual fundraising goal of $5.8 million. Not only are you our most generous donors, but you are also our most loyal donors. For the past five years, the average renewal rate for donors giving $1,000 or more to the Center has been 83 percent – twice the national average, which helped us become one of the premier performing arts centers in the country.”

Dress Circle members are donors who support the Center by contributing $1,000 or more annually. CELEBRATING 11 YEARS of SUPPORT for ARTS EDUCATION

Cindy and Ted Mandes

Mark and Sherri Carter, Andy Beckstoffer

The Palm Beach Wine Auction celebrated its 11th year supporting children's arts education programs by welcoming nearly 230 guests to the Kravis Center's Gimelstob Ballroom in the Cohen Pavilion on February 1st. Attendees were treated to five decadent courses, each course served with a special vintage of fine wine.

Palm Beach Wine Auction Chairman Ted Mandes welcomed guests to the evening and thanked the event's sponsors and longtime supporters. He then acknowledged the Kravis Center's mission – and that of the Auction – to enrich local students' lives through access to the performing arts. "For more than 25 years, the Kravis Center has ensured that children in our community are given the chance to grow their imaginations and expand the cultural connections in their lives through the performing arts."

The evening included a number of outstanding signature lots, including the evening's last and highest single bid, a Louis XIII Le Jeroboam decanter with wooden case, pipette and four signature crystal glasses that sold for $65,000.

For the first time in its history, the Palm Beach Wine Auction catalog was offered online for pre-bidding. Guests and absentee bidders placed bids via mobile devices until 30 minutes before the live auction began.

Along with Ted Mandes as the event Chairman, Patrick Park returned as the event's International Ambassador.

Palm Beach Wine Auction sponsors are Broadrick Family Foundation; JPMorgan Chase & Co.; Aston Martin, Jaguar, Land Rover, McLaren Palm Beach; Jen and Ed Dudnyk; Susan Hurley Esson; Patricia and Edward Falkenberg; Madeline and Roderic Fink; First Republic Bank; Dr. Steven M. Gottlieb

THIS COULD BE YOUR GREATEST ROLE.
A GIFT THAT BECOMES A LEGACY.

Imagine making a lasting impact on your community for generations to come—with just one gift. A gift that brings enriching, awe-inspiring and joy-filled experiences to people of all ages and ensures these unforgettable moments will continue into the future.

When you give a legacy gift to the Kravis Center, you'll be among an esteemed group of discerning donors who wish to support the causes that are important in their lives. Your gift will help us continue our mission of enhancing the quality of life in Palm Beach County. Your support today secures our future tomorrow—and will ensure that the Kravis Center retains its reputation as South Florida's premier center for the performing arts and the community's top cultural attraction.

The Kravis Center recognizes your generosity as a member of the Helen K. Persson Society (or respects your wishes to remain anonymous).

For information about the Helen K. Persson Society, please contact Margaret May Damen, CFP®, CLU®, ChFC®, CAP® Endowment and Planned Giving Officer at 561.651.4230 or damen@kravis.org or visit kravis.org/endowment.

WHY I GIVE ...

"I believe it is my responsibility to give back to the community in the same way I was fortunate to experience the life-long benefit and joy that comes from participating in theater and music productions, and learning about the arts. Educational programs at the Kravis Center serve two audiences: very talented children who need good mentors to be the best they can be, and children who have limited access in their communities and schools to encounter the beauty, harmony, and discipline that comes from participating in the creative process. The arts not only nurture the soul, they also provide young people with the foundation for good citizenship throughout their entire adult life. It makes my heart sing to know that my gift to the endowment through my estate plan will allow the Kravis Center to continue their important educational work in the community beyond my lifetime."
