"THE MOST REMARKABLE BROADWAY EXPERIENCE EVER!"

Rock of Ages
Tenth Anniversary Tour

BOOK BY CHRISS D'ARIENZO
ARRANGEMENTS AND ORCHESTRATIONS BY ETHAN POPP

November 6-11, 2018
As we look forward to celebrating the Thanksgiving holiday next month with family and friends, I extend my deepest thanks to you for making another groundbreaking season possible at the Kravis Center. Without your support, we would not have reached our 25th anniversary two years ago or marked a decade of Kravis On Broadway last season. Having achieved these important milestones, a new anticipation is building as our 2018-2019 season unfolds and our Kravis 2020: The Future is Now expansion project is well underway – as is our capital campaign to fund this project. To learn more about the capital campaign please see page 4.

Although we are always thrilled to celebrate the past, we are even more eager to look to the future and, with your help, continue the momentum that has taken the Kravis Center from a dream in the 1980s to a thriving cultural landmark within a dynamic and evolving downtown. With that in mind, we hope that you will continue to support our Annual Operating Campaign with your membership contributions and by attending this season’s two benefit events. The multi-event Palm Beach Wine Auction, that culminates in a five-course dinner and live auction, takes place on January 24, and our annual Gala on March 1, which includes an elegant dinner dance following a fantastic performance by David Foster and Friends, with the Kravis Center Pops Orchestra. For details, I invite you to visit palmbeachwineauction.org and kravis.org/gala or to call our Development Department at 561.651.4320.

Your attendance at our wide-ranging and diverse line-up of performances continues to motivate our stellar programming and makes our efforts worthwhile. As always, this season offers something for everyone, from America’s premier comedian, Jerry Seinfeld, on October 26 to Disney’s something for everyone, from America’s premier comedian, Jerry Seinfeld, on October 26 to Disney’s The Lion King, on November 12, and Black Violin, two string artists who make their Kravis Center debut on November 26. For tickets to performances, please visit our official website, kravis.org, or call the Box Office at 561.832.7469.

In closing, I extend an enthusiastic standing ovation to our 123 full-time employees, half of whom have been on staff for 10 years or more; our 90 part-time employees; and our more than 500 volunteers, including our dedicated Board of Directors. Their commitment of time and expertise, as well as your encouragement and support, allows the Kravis Center to continue to build on a solid foundation of artistic excellence, educational outreach and community involvement.

Introducing
Kravis 2020: The Future is Now
The Kravis Center’s $50 million capital campaign, consistent with our mission to enhance the quality of life in Palm Beach County, will elevate and enhance the customer experience before, during and after performances.

The future will bring:
• Accessible and pedestrian-friendly outdoor urban plazas, greenspace terraces, enlarged sidewalks and bike paths
• 6,000 square feet of additional interior space inside Dreyfoos Hall Lobby, providing guest seating and restrooms
• A separate valet-only garage and more drop-off/pick-up lanes
• Improved traffic flow in main garage with additional entrance/exit
• Artistic wrapping of main garage, uniform branding signage, improved wayfinding
• Ticket barcode system, security screeners at entrances, electronic parking assistance
Join us as we turn every visit to the Center into an outstanding experience

We welcome your participation:
Rise to the occasion!

KRAVIS 2020: THE FUTURE IS NOW
More than 500 volunteers and guests put on their finest “Rat Pack Revival” attire for the Kravis Center’s Volunteer Salute sponsored by Jane M. Mitchell. The annual thank-you dinner is known for its imaginative themes and fun surprises, and this year stood out with its Las Vegas casino décor.

“Tonight is all about our volunteers and we want to recognize and thank each of you for all you do,” said Maureen Gardella, Director of Guest Services. “Your time and efforts are an invaluable part of the Kravis Center experience. Currently more than 500 of you help with many aspects of our operation and we could not do this without you.”

Lauryn Owen was awarded the Student Volunteer of the Year award by Education Assistant Miranda Hawkins who said, “One of Lauryn’s strongest assets as a volunteer, in my opinion, is her ability to connect with the students. It’s clear to see that she cares for them, and that they care for her.”

The Rookie of the Year award went to husband and wife, Stuart and Elizabeth Patt. “This year’s winners have shown a unique ability to handle unforeseen situations and, in the process, made our job easier. They work in a professional and efficient manner with a welcoming and friendly face,” said Paul Kaufman, Event Manager.

Event Manager Karole Cooney presented the Usher of the Year award to Andrea McNally. “She carries out her duties with ease and she accepts all of her assignments willingly and enthusiastically. When she is assigned to a position, we know the job will be well done.”

Kravis Center CEO Judith Mitchell presented the prestigious Volunteer of the Year award to Rita Greiner. “Each year the Volunteer of the Year Award goes to a volunteer who has demonstrated outstanding dedication and commitment to the Kravis Center. This year’s award goes to a volunteer who I have had the pleasure of working with from our very first season. She has always been, and continues to be, a vital part of our operation.”

Volunteers and their guests were treated to a very special dinner by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center. After the awards presentation, the volunteers danced the evening away to ‘60s “Rat Pack” cover music performed by musicians and Legends Radio hosts, Jill and Rich Switzer.

For more information about volunteer opportunities, please visit the Kravis Center’s website kravis.org or call 561.651.4294.

Guests at the first Dream Awards: Celebrating High School Musical Theater Excellence ceremony in the Kravis Center’s Dreyfoos Hall in June were treated to high-energy performances by 145 students from 10 local high schools. Featured musicals included Disney’s Beauty and the Beast, Fiddler on the Roof, Kiss Me, Kate and Sweet Charity.

Suncoast Community High School won Outstanding Musical for its production of Fiddler on the Roof, and Dreyfoos School of the Arts’ Dean of Theatre, Michelle Petrucci, was named Inspiring Theater Educator of the Year for her commitment to Dreyfoos’ theater program and its students. Casey Butler from The King’s Academy and Skyler Sajewski from Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts were named Outstanding Lead Actor and Outstanding Lead Actress. Casey was featured in Oliver! The Musical as Artful Dodger, while Skyler performed the role of Kate/Lilli Vanessi in Kiss Me, Kate, during performances of the musicals held at their schools during the 2017-2018 school year. Both students earned a trip to New York City to participate in the National High School Musical Theatre Awards in June.

Awards were also given at the event for Outstanding Supporting Actor and Actress, Outstanding Featured Male and Female Dancers along with several scholarships. The participating schools were Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts, The Benjamin School, Boca Raton High School, Boynton Beach Community High School, Cardinal Newman High School, The King’s Academy, Oxbridge Academy, Palm Beach Central High School, Suncoast Community High School and Wellington Community High School.

This new performing arts education initiative for high school students will continue for the 2018-2019 school year and is sponsored by PNC’s Arts Alive grant program for the visual and performing arts. Public and private high schools in Palm Beach County are eligible for the program. Kravis Center theater adjudicators will continue to observe and critique musical theater productions at participating schools this year.

“We have always wanted to create a high school musical theater awards program here at the Kravis Center, and we could not be happier with our first Dream Awards showcase performance,” said Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO. “Our community has become the cultural capital of Florida, and these awards are a testament to the mission of the Kravis Center, as well as to the hard work by our local educators to make arts education a priority for our young people.”
The Kravis Center hosted its first Student Share Celebration for the Disney Musicals in Schools program on April 3. More than 160 students from four local Title I elementary schools performed for hundreds of family and friends in the showcase on the Center’s Marden Stage in Dreyfoos Hall.

The students, from Egret Lake Elementary in West Palm Beach, Forest Park Elementary in Boynton Beach, Glade View Elementary in Belle Glade and Starlight Cove Elementary in Lantana, performed such favorite musical selections as “Circle of Life” from The Lion King KIDS and “Everybody Wants to be a Cat” from The Aristocats KIDS. Local media personalities Leslie Gray Streeter of The Palm Beach Post and Glenn Glazer of WPTV NewsChannel 5 emceed the event.

“The Student Share Celebration was a wonderful showcase of the extraordinary student work this past school year,” said Tracy Butler, Director of Education for the Kravis Center. “We could not be happier with how this first event highlighted the goal of the program, which is to create sustainable theater programs in under-resourced elementary schools. The program uses the unique world of musical theater to help students develop the wide spectrum of skills needed when producing a piece of musical theater, including critical thinking, problem solving, ensemble building, communication, self-confidence and interpersonal skills.”

In July, four additional Palm Beach County Title I elementary schools were chosen to participate in Disney Musicals in Schools for the 2018-2019 school year. The program is an initiative developed by Disney Theatrical Productions. The additional selected schools joining those listed above are: Academy for Positive Learning in Lake Worth, Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune Elementary in Riviera Beach, Meadow Park Elementary in West Palm Beach and Lincoln Elementary in Riviera Beach.

The four new schools will participate in a 17-week musical theater residency, led by a team of teaching artists trained by the Kravis Center and Disney Theatrical Productions. Each school will receive performance rights, educational support materials and guidance from the teaching artists at no cost. The program features a professional development focus, through which participating school teachers partner with Kravis Center teaching artists to learn how to produce, direct, choreograph, and music direct, culminating in their first 30-minute Disney KIDS musical at their school. The four original schools will continue in the program with new musicals this year and support from the Kravis Center and Disney.

As a capstone to the experience, the Kravis Center will host a second Student Share Celebration on April 2, 2019 during which each school cast performs one production number from its show on the Kravis Center’s Dreyfoos Hall stage for an audience of students, teachers, family, and community members. ▲
The Kravis Center offered three exciting programs this past summer with a variety of performing arts enrichment options for students ages 9-20.

ArtsCamp is an innovative, three-week summer camp that provided 70 young artists with a working knowledge of what it takes to bring a show from an idea to reality. The program offered an intensive performing arts approach that focused on dramatic composition and performance for students ages 9-11. Under the guidance of eight professional teaching artists, campers explored art, acting, dance, technical theater and vocal music which culminated in an original ensemble piece that was produced by the young artists and performed for family and friends. The theme and title of this year’s production was Dare 2 Dream. For campers with a keen interest in the performing arts, this curriculum provided an opportunity to expand their skills and learn new technical and performance skills. ArtsCamp was sponsored by Rita and Charles Bronfman, with support from Jane Beasley, Rick and Rosemary Johnston, and George T. and Ruth C. Laboda Charitable Foundation.

The Broadway Artists Intensive returned for its seventh year at the Kravis Center with two summer sessions. The by-audition-only program is a three-week, advanced musical theater training intensive for ages 12-20. The Broadway Artists Intensive Junior is taught by the same professional Broadway faculty as the more demanding, by-audition-only program, allowing students ages 9-13 to study all areas of the performing arts, with daily classes in ballet, jazz, tap, vocal technique, acting and improvisation. No audition is required.

“The Kravis Center is delighted to offer local students the opportunity to learn and train with many talented teaching artists and Broadway professionals each summer,” said Tracy Butler, Director of Education for the Kravis Center. “The Broadway Artists Intensive programs and ArtsCamp provide students with memorable experiences with new friends who share their passion for creative expression.”

About The Broadway Artists Intensive
Created by Broadway professionals Jason Gillman, Jackie Bayne Gillman and Greg Graham, the classes are taught by an all-Broadway faculty, including special guest artists. Previous guest artists have included Tony Award-winning Director/Choreographer Jerry Mitchell, creator of Kinky Boots, the Best Musical of 2013, actor and choreographer John Rua of Hamilton and TV star and two-time Tony Award-winner Christian Borle of NBC’s Smash. For more information, visit thebroadwayartistsintensive.com.
The Kravis Center and the School District of Palm Beach County recently partnered to host nearly 500 Palm Beach County K-12 public school dance, drama, music and visual art teachers for two days in August. The workshops were designed to offer high-quality professional development training while showcasing the Center’s multitude of arts enrichment opportunities for students throughout the year.

Ericka Squire, Manager of Arts and Cultural Education at the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, was on hand to lead one of the many workshops that included collaborations with the Norton Museum of Art, Boca Raton Museum of Art, Palm Beach Dramaworks, Palm Beach Symphony and other community arts organizations. Arts education vendors were also on hand to share the latest in curriculum enhancement tools and their organizations’ and companies’ event schedules.

During the two-day event, teachers also received background on all the presentations for young people the Kravis Center will offer throughout the 2018-2019 season, ranging from The Magic School Bus: Lost in the Solar System to Mary Shelley’s Frankenstein: The Modern Prometheus. Teachers of all grade levels are encouraged to find productions to help support their classroom curricula and to provide complementary programming. In addition, the Kravis Center launched its 2018-2019 Kravis Center Education Programs during this two-day event. To learn more about the programming, please visit kravis.org/education.

It was a star-studded night in the Kravis Center’s Ellen and Robert M. Jaffe Windsor Room as guests gathered to watch the Tony Awards on the big screen on June 10, 2018. Broadway fans, winners of the Tony-Award Party social media contest and media personalities mingled and enjoyed delicious eats while watching the celebrities arrive onto the red carpet.

The evening, complete with Tony trivia, giveaways and selfies in the Polaroid booth, was a great way to kick-off the upcoming 2018-2019 Kravis On Broadway Season, featuring seven Tony-award winning and nominated musicals and top touring hits including the 10th anniversary tour of Rock of Ages, Hello, Dolly! starring Bette Midler, and the Kravis Center premiere of Disney’s The Lion King.

Several lucky guests won tickets to Kravis On Broadway performances and all who attended received a special gift bag.

Burt Reynolds

Adored by the world for his on-screen charisma and iconic good looks, Burt Reynolds holds a special place in the hearts of all of us at the Kravis Center. A Florida local, the movie and TV star graced our stage as Master of Ceremonies at our Gala Grand Opening Night of Stars performance in 1992, and served on our Honorary Artistic Board. We were honored to have known him and we join the community and fans everywhere in mourning his loss.

On July 19, more than 400 energetic young professionals beat the heat at Grandview Public Market for the 4th annual “Sip of Summer” event. Young Friends members from twelve local nonprofit organizations and their guests came together to celebrate making a difference in the South Florida community while enjoying cocktails and hors d’oeuvres at the 13,000 square-foot Grandview Public Market, a new food hall located in the Warehouse District in West Palm Beach.

“Tonight’s attendees are a giving group of young professionals, committed to supporting arts and culture in Palm Beach County,” said Stephanie Glavin, Senior Vice President, Palm Beach County Local Market Manager, Bank of America and Young Friends of the Kravis Center Chair. “Throughout the season, our group organizes events to support the Kravis Center’s arts education programs. Membership in the Young Friends group is a wonderful way to make a difference in the lives of area children as well as network with other young professionals.”

“Each year this event gets bigger and attracts more young professionals looking for an added value to their Young Friends memberships,” said Talya Lerman, Development Manager at the Kravis Center. “For future Young Friends members, this is a great way to find out more about what each nonprofit has to offer.”

Young Friends of the Kravis Center membership starts at $125 annually. For more information, please contact Talya Lerman, Development Manager, at 561.651.4373 or lerman@kravis.org.
Kravis Center Board of Directors, Life Trustees and Standing Committee members were honored on April 26 at an annual luncheon, which also celebrated highlights of the season.

The annual luncheon was sponsored by Laurie Silvers and Mitchell Rubenstein, who have generously underwritten the event for the past 12 years. Ms. Silvers, who serves as Board Vice Chair, welcomed guests and shared about how the Kravis Center’s arts education programs help prepare the next generation of artists and audiences.

Board Chairman Michael Bracci acknowledged and congratulated Board members Dr. Barbara Evans Golden and Garrison (Gary) duP. Lickle, who were awarded the designation of Kravis Center Life Trustee upon completion of their terms as Board members.

Dr. Golden was elected to the Board in April 2006. She served on the Kravis Center’s Education Committee and was the committee’s chair from 2006-2018. She also served on the Development Committee and the Governance/Nominating Committee.

Mr. Lickle was elected to the Board in November 2005 and served as Board Treasurer from 2007-2013. He served on the Finance Committee and was the committee’s chair from 2007-2013. Mr. Lickle was also a member of the CEO Review Committee, Executive Committee, and Investment Committee.

Mr. Bracci introduced Kravis Center CEO, Judith Mitchell who thanked attendees. In the recap of the season, Ms. Mitchell announced, “Our programming, attendance and usage by the community of all of our facilities and venues continues at an extremely high level. Pollstar, the only publication that measures the number of tickets sold by all concert venues around the world with up to 10,000 seats, rated the Kravis Center fifth in the world, third in the United States and first in Florida. This is particularly impressive, since the Kravis Center only has 2,195 seats and we are being compared to venues having nearly five times as many seats.”
On Wednesday, March 7, a special luncheon was held to honor and thank members of the Helen K. Persson Society for their confidence, trust and investment in the Kravis Center’s long-term future. Bernstein Private Wealth Management sponsored the luncheon for the ninth consecutive year.

Named for one of the Kravis Center’s ardent supporters, the late Helen K. Persson, the Society which recognizes Endowment contributors, now has 142 members and a market value of $21.5 million. Mrs. Persson served as a member of the Board of Directors from 1992 to 2007 and was elected to the position of Life Trustee in 2007.

“Today we honor and thank Persson Society members for their decision to make an impact that extends into the future of the Kravis Center,” said Judith Mitchell, CEO of the Kravis Center. “By making a current or deferred gift through their estate plan to our Endowment Fund, Persson Society members share a commitment to ensure that the Kravis Center will endure and flourish.”

Bernstein Private Wealth Management guest speakers, Evan Deoul, Senior Managing Director and Brian Wodar, Senior Vice President shared with luncheon guests how to more efficiently achieve their philanthropic goals, especially under the new tax laws.

Following the presentation, Ms. Mitchell gave a special commemorative gift to new Persson Society members in attendance: Janet and Stephen Barr, Dr. Barbara Evans Golden, Cindy Costello Mandes and Donald Ephraim and Maxine Marks.

Members of the Helen K. Persson Society receive invitations to special events, acknowledgment in Kravis Center publications and other benefits based on level of commitment. For more information, please contact Margaret May Damen CFP®, CLU®, ChFC®, CAP®, Planned Giving and Endowment Officer at 561.651.4230 or damen@kravis.org.

More than 200 of the Kravis Center’s major donors attended a special evening on Saturday, March 17 in honor of the Center’s Founders and Grand Benefactors, Benefactors, Grand Sponsors, Sponsors and Patron Members of the Dress Circle.

Donors and special guests enjoyed a welcome cocktail reception prior to entering the Gimelstob Ballroom in the Cohen Pavilion for a delectable three-course dinner by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center.

The annual dinner was sponsored by Northern Trust, which was acknowledged for its sponsorship of this event for 22 consecutive years.

The evening’s performance by Audra McDonald followed the dinner and was sponsored by Founder members Sheila Engelstein, and Zelda and Allen Mason.

“In our last fiscal year, the financial commitment of donors at your level from $10,000 to over $100,000 and above represented 77 percent of our annual fundraising goal of $5.8 million,” said Kravis Center CEO Judith Mitchell. “Tonight, we celebrate and thank each of you for the important role you play in supporting our mission to enhance the quality of life in Palm Beach County.”

For information about Kravis Center membership and special events, contact the Development Office at 561.651.4320 or email development@kravis.org.

On WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 2018, leadership from the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, The Weitz Company, Leo A Daly and WGI, brought the future closer into view when they and supporters OFFICIALLY BROKE GROUND on the Center’s $50 MILLION EXPANSION PROJECT, KRAVIS 2020: THE FUTURE IS NOW. With commemorative shovels and hard hats, officials from the four organizations broke ground and STARTED THE OFFICIAL CONSTRUCTION ball rolling on the project. The Kravis 2020 Campaign is chaired by John Kessler, who also serves on the Kravis Center board as Vice Chairman.

What is the TIMELINE for the PROJECT?

The construction of this project is scheduled to be complete within two years - started in May 2018 with completion in summer 2020.

What is the COST of the PROJECT and HOW WILL IT BE FUNDED?

The Kravis Center Board of Directors unanimously approved a $50 million capital campaign. The Kravis Center owes its growth, financial stability and overall success to the ongoing support of the community. In this regard, the Kravis Center’s history of fundraising success in the community is second to none.

It has earned the reputation as one of the most successful fundraising organizations in the country.

Will the PROJECT IMPACT PERFORMANCES and ACCESS to the FACILITIES?

Performances will continue throughout the construction; the number and frequency will not be affected. Guest access to the Kravis Center will not change during the construction or after it is complete. photos by CAPEHART
The Kravis Center’s third Corporate Partners Business Speaker Series event of the season, featured guest speaker Charles Bronfman who was interviewed by his friend and colleague Dr. Jeff Solomon. The luncheon took place on March 28.

Mr. Bronfman, a resident of Palm Beach, served on the Kravis Center Board of Directors from 1995 to 2004. He was president of the Andrea and Charles Bronfman Philanthropies for over 20 years and retired as co-chairman of The Seagram Company where he enjoyed a 50-year career. Mr. Bronfman is past chairman of Koor Industries Ltd., one of Israel’s leading investment holding companies, and was chairman and principal owner of the Montreal Expos, the first Major League Baseball Club to exist outside the United States.

Eileen Berman, Managing Director of UBS Private Wealth Management and the Corporate Partners Executive Committee Chair, welcomed members and guests.

“We are honored to have Mr. Bronfman and Dr. Solomon here with us today,” said Ms. Berman. “Among other accomplishments, Mr. Bronfman is a co-founder of Birthright Israel, and was appointed the first chairman of United Jewish Communities, now the Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA). He co-authored the books The Art of Giving, The Art of Doing Good and Distilled: A Memoir of Family, Seagram, Baseball and Philanthropy.”

“Start with a passion and do something to make a difference in your community. Take philanthropy seriously, measure your progress and build it gradually,” Mr. Bronfman said.

Kravis Center Corporate Partners members are the corporate and professional leadership in Palm Beach County whose mission is to support and enable the Kravis Center to continue its extensive arts education and community outreach programs. Corporate Partners membership offers business leaders the opportunity to act as an integral part of the Kravis Center, building awareness of the Center within the business community. The Business Speaker Series is one of many benefits for this support level.

For more information about the Corporate Partners program, please contact Julie Hetherington, Sponsorship & Corporate Partners Officer, at 561.651.4201.

DR. DAVID I. KOSOWSKY

The Kravis Center has lost a dear friend and a fine gentleman with the passing of Dr. David I. Kosowsky on July 27, 2018. David served as a member of the Board of Directors for nine years. Throughout his association with the Kravis Center, David brought his considerable business and technological expertise to the Board and to his work on the Building and Grounds, Strategic Planning, and Information Technology Committees. During his tenure on the Board, David chaired the Strategic Planning Committee and was the first Chairman of the Information Technology Committee.

In 2014, David and his wife, Ingrid, established “The Ingrid and David Kosowsky Technology Development Fund” to facilitate technological advances at the Kravis Center, ensuring the continued technologic strength and strategic stability of the Kravis Center. David’s generous support of the Kravis Center began very early during our original building campaign and continued with support of every subsequent campaign. He was equally generous in sharing his time, knowledge, and experience in helping guide the Center to grow as a leader in the cultural community. David Kosowsky will be missed, but his mark on the Kravis Center and the community will live on for generations to come.

summer of giving

Bank of America awarded checks to 16 local non-profit organizations as part of their 2018 “Summer of Giving” initiative. The Kravis Center was one of the beneficiaries, and is grateful for their ongoing, outstanding support of our mission.

We are grateful to Fab Brumley, Palm Beach County President and Southeast Regional Executive, Stephanie Glavin, Senior Vice President, Palm Beach County Local Market Manager and Bank of America for funding vital programs in our community and for their ongoing commitment to Kravis Center programs.
Our special thanks to the following individuals, corporations and foundations for their support and sponsorships of Kravis Center programs and education and community outreach initiatives. Their interest and enthusiasm for the performing arts enable the Center to bring the highest level of artists and performers to Palm Beach County.
