Fall is here, and with it comes the anticipation of celebrating Thanksgiving with family and loved ones. I am delighted to welcome you to our 2019-2020 season and to extend my gratitude for your invaluable support of the Kravis Center, it is truly what allows us to continue providing world-class entertainment and arts education programming for students of all ages.

Although we’re still asking that you please “pardon our dust” as our expansion project continues, this season has already gotten off to a spectacular start, with many exciting changes to the Center welcoming our guests. With the Kravis 2020: The Future is Now expansion project well underway, parking at the Center is now easier and more convenient—including the opening of our brand-new valet garage and the new 4th floor ramp in our Center, it is truly what allows us to extend our gratitude for your support of the Kravis Center and its programming for students of all ages.

I also invite you to support the Center by attending two of this season’s important fundraising events. On January 20th the Kravis Center’s Palm Beach Wine Auction, now in its 13th year, will once again invite supporters to raise their paddles and bid on wonderful wine and travel experiences to support the Kravis Center’s arts education initiatives. Then, on March 14th, our annual Gala will feature an incredible performance by multi-platinum award-winning singer, songwriter Josh Groban, followed by an elegant dinner dance. To find out more visit palmbeachwineauction.org and kravis.org/gala or call 561.651.4320.

Our 28th season is off to a dazzling start with a line-up of performances by an array of dynamic artists and entertainers. Kravis On Broadway will kick off with a brand-new production of the timeless favorite, Fiddler On The Roof, and also includes The Play That Goes Wrong, A Bronx Tale, Hamilton, Miss Saigon, Come from Away and Summer: The Donna Summer Musical. Comedians Daniel Tosh, John Waters and Jim Gaffigan will fill Dreyfoos Hall with laughter and our numerous concerts, including Dave Koz and Friends, The Isley Brothers, Kenny G and David Foster will provide more space to mingle before performances and during intermission. We are certain that these and the other changes to the Center that are forthcoming will only make your visit here more enjoyable. I invite you to be a part of the excitement by participating in the project’s Capital Campaign. To find out more, please call 561.651.4273 or visit kravis.org/kravis2020.

As we head into the holiday season, I extend an enthusiastic thank you to our dedicated staff, our hundreds of volunteers and our Board of Directors. All of whom make everything we do year after year possible.

We look forward to seeing you here! ▲
Jeffrey Stoops has been involved with the Kravis Center since it first opened its doors nearly 28 years ago. A resident of Delray Beach, he has not only enjoyed numerous performances over the years, but has given his time and resources to support the Center. He has served on the Kravis Center Board of Directors since 2013 and as Board Treasurer, Chairman of the Finance Committee and Chairman of the Corporate Partners Executive Committee. He also served on the Governance/Nominating, Investment, and the Kravis 2020 Capital Campaign Committees. Mr. Stoops, President and Chief Executive Officer of SBA Communications Corporation, was elected as Chairman during the Center's annual meeting with his term as Chairman beginning on July 1 of this year.

Based in Boca Raton, Florida, SBA owns and operates almost 30,000 wireless communications sites in 13 countries across the Western Hemisphere, employing approximately 1,500 people. SBA is a member of the S&P 500 and one of Florida’s largest public companies by market capitalization. The company trades on the NASDAQ under the symbol SBAC. The company supports a variety of causes and organizations and is a supporter of the Kravis Center’s annual campaign, as well as a sponsor of the annual Gala.

“As we head into our 28th season, we are thrilled to welcome Jeffrey Stoops as our new Board Chairman. His dedication and service to the Kravis Center over many years as well as his business expertise have been invaluable to our organization’s mission and long-range planning. He is committed to our Kravis 2020 initiative; his leadership and his family foundation’s generous gift in support of the project are ensuring our growth and enhanced performing arts experiences for future generations,” says Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO.

“The Kravis Center has been a part of our family since it first opened in 1992,” said Mr. Stoops. “As a long-time patron, supporter and board member, I am proud to have been elected to this leadership role, helping shape the future of our community’s premier performing arts center.”

The Kravis Center and the Board of Directors are grateful to Michael Bracci who served as Board Chairman from 2016-2019. His leadership and commitment to the Center and its mission and growth were exemplary. Mr. Bracci will continue serving on the Board of Directors and will chair the Center’s Finance Committee.

During the annual meeting, David G. Lambert was elected as a new member of the board for a three-year term. Laurie Silvers was elected to the position of Life Trustee following her 12 years of service to the board, of which she served six years as Vice Chair. “As Board Chairman, it is my honor to welcome David Lambert to the Board of Directors on behalf of the Kravis Center,” said Mr. Stoops. “Mr. Lambert’s passion for the arts and our community is evident. My fellow directors and I look forward to working with him as the Kravis Center’s mission grows and evolves.”

“We look forward to working closely with Mr. Stoops and Mr. Lambert as the Center continues its commitment to providing a diverse array of entertainment and educational experiences for people of all ages,” says Judith Mitchell.

More than 600 volunteers and guests put on their hard hats for the Kravis Center’s Volunteer Salute sponsored by Jane Mitchell. The annual thank-you dinner held on April 15, is known for its imaginative themes and fun surprises, and this year stood out with its “Renovation Revelry” theme, a nod to the Center’s Kravis 2020: The Future is Now expansion project.

“Tonight is all about you and we want to recognize and thank each of you for all you do,” said Maureen Gardella, Director of Guest Services. “Your time and efforts are an invaluable part of the Kravis Center experience. Currently more than 550 of you help with many aspects of our operation and we could not do this without you.”

Education Associates, Ali Rehm and Keena Gumbinner, recognized Alexandra Garroway, Sam Kronhaus and Carolyn Lord as the 2019 Outstanding Student Volunteers of the Year for dedicating hundreds of hours to ArtsCamp.

“They have become more than just volunteers; they are youth mentors,” said Ali Rehm. “They assist the teachers, encourage the campers and lead by example. We cannot thank them enough.”

The Rookie of the Year award for first year ushers went to Susan Barth. “Whenever we ask for help, she is always one of the first to respond. Susan accepts every ushering assignment happily and is always a pleasure to work with,” said Karole Cooney, Event Manager.

Event Manager Armund Dezii presented the Usher of the Year award to Barbara Holzberg. “For the last two seasons, Barbara volunteered to work a total of 195 performances and events and never once failed to report for duty,” said Dezii.

Kravis Center CEO Judith Mitchell presented the prestigious Volunteer of the Year award to Ben Baxley. “This year’s award goes to a volunteer who has made a huge impact. He is a former Rookie of the Year award winner, always helpful and courteous, and operates with a calm and friendly manner. He is an excellent representative of the Kravis Center.”

Volunteers and their guests were treated to a very special dinner by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center and after the presentation, the volunteers danced the evening away to music provided by DJ Hector.

One Inspiring Teacher and His Students Are BROADWAY BOUND!

The freshman at Port St. Lucie High School can’t wait to be seniors—and not for the reason you might think. You see, seniors who participate in drama classes with Drama Director Patrick Madden get the chance to experience seven Broadway shows at the Kravis Center and ten shows on Broadway in New York City. The drama program at Port St. Lucie High School is one-of-a-kind, and Mr. Madden has inspired a love of the arts to his students for 30 years and counting.

One of the school’s few remaining original instructors, Madden began the drama program when the school opened with the intent on exposing his students to the many facets of the performing arts, including production of two musicals each school year and attending professional performances. “My hope is that when my students grow up they foster a love of the arts and theater with their families,” Madden explained. Many of his students continue in the arts after graduating—in fact, one of his former students, Jay Garcia, is a cast member for the upcoming presentation of Summer: The Donna Summer Musical, at the Kravis Center during the 2019-2020 season!

More than a decade ago, the premiere season of Kravis On Broadway, Madden implemented a program which gives his seniors the opportunity to attend all seven shows of the Broadway series. Their season subscriptions are paid for with the money earned from the ticket sales of their own productions each school year. During the 2018-2019 school year the student’s shows brought in 12,000 people and the group’s favorite Kravis On Broadway show was hands-down Rock of Ages. Although, they all got a kick out of seeing Betty Buckley in Hello, Dolly! And, because Mr. Madden took his students to see The Lion King when it premiered on Broadway in New York, this year’s class was especially excited to see the show here in West Palm Beach.

In addition to having the opportunity to participate in and experience live theater, Mr. Madden’s drama students also gain new life skills, including getting more comfortable speaking in public, which helps them in college and as they go off into the workforce.

The seniors also mentor students in a local elementary school, getting the kids interested in the arts at a young age—something that benefits all those who participate.

Patrick Madden continues to change lives with the drama program at Port St. Lucie High School, positively impacting students at every level. The Kravis Center is delighted to welcome him and his students to our Kravis On Broadway series each year! ▲

The Kravis Center offered three exciting programs this past summer with a variety of performing arts enrichment options for students ages 9-21.

ArtsCamp is an innovative, three-week summer camp that provided 67 young artists with a working knowledge of what it takes to bring a show from an idea to reality. The program offered an intensive performing arts approach that focused on dramatic composition and performance for students ages 9-11.

Under the guidance of eight professional teaching artists, campers explored art, acting, dance, technical theater and vocal music which culminated in an original ensemble piece that was produced by the young artists and performed for family and friends.

The theme and title of this year’s production was This is Home. For campers with a keen interest in the performing arts, this curriculum provided an opportunity to expand their skills and learn new technical and performance skills. ArtsCamp was sponsored by Rita and Charles Bronfman, with support from Jane Beasley, Rick and Rosemary Johnston, and George T. and Ruth C. Laboda Charitable Foundation.

The Broadway Artists Intensive returned for its eighth year with two summer sessions. The by-audition-only program is a three-week, advanced musical theater training intensive for ages 14-21. This summer included special guest faculty visits from Tony Award Winner Annaleigh Ashford and Disney Casting Director Dan LoBuono, who held a live audition for Disney theme park character roles during the program. The Broadway Artists Intensive Junior is taught by the same professional Broadway faculty as the more demanding, by-audition-only program, allowing students ages 9-13 to study all areas of the performing arts, with daily classes in ballet, jazz, tap, vocal technique, acting and improvisation. No audition is required.

“The Kravis Center is delighted to offer students from throughout our community – and even from other parts of the country – the opportunity to learn and train with many talented teaching artists and Broadway professionals each summer,” said Tracy Butler, Director of Education for the Kravis Center. “The Broadway Artists Intensive programs and ArtsCamp provide students with memorable experiences with new friends who share their passion for creative expression.”

About The Broadway Artists Intensive Created by Broadway professionals Jason Gillman, Jackie Bayne Gillman and Greg Graham, the classes are taught by an all-Broadway faculty, including special guest artists. Previous guest artists have included Tony Award-winning Director/Choreographer Jerry Mitchell, creator of Kinky Boots, the Best Musical of 2013, actor and choreographer John Rua of Hamilton and TV star and two-time Tony Award-winner Christian Borle of NBC’s Smash. Teachers Go Back-to-the-Arts BEFORE SCHOOL STARTS

The Kravis Center and the School District of Palm Beach County recently partnered to host over 200 Palm Beach County K-12 public school dance, drama and music teachers for two days of workshops in August. The workshops were designed to offer high-quality professional development training while showcasing the Center’s multitude of arts enrichment opportunities for students throughout the year.

Workshops included collaborations with Armory Art Center, Norton Museum of Art, Palm Beach Dramaworks, Young Singers of the Palm Beaches and other community arts organizations.

During the two-day event, teachers also received background on all the presentations for young people that the Center will offer throughout the 2019-2020 season, ranging from Kidoons’ Jungle Book to Virginia Rep On Tour’s Sweet Chariot. Teachers of all grade levels are encouraged to find productions to help support their classroom curricula and to provide complementary programming. In addition, the Kravis Center launched its 2019-2020 Education Programs. To learn more about the programming, please visit kravis.org/education.

CELEBRATING
Kravis Center
LEADERSHIP and SUPPORT

The Board of Directors, Life Trustees and Standing Committee members of the Kravis Center were honored on April 25 at an annual luncheon, which also celebrated highlights of the season.

Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO, welcomed guests and acknowledged luncheon sponsors Laurie Silvers and Mitchell Rubenstein, who have generously sponsored the event for the past 13 years. Ms. Mitchell also welcomed Palm Beach County Commissioner District 7, Mayor Mack Bernard.

Board Chair Michael Bracci paid tribute to Kravis Center Board Vice Chair Laurie Silvers, who was completing her term as a Board member. Mr. Bracci thanked Ms. Silvers for her outstanding legacy of leadership and distinguished service to the Kravis Center’s mission and to the community and presented her with a Tiffany pentastar in recognition of her service. Ms. Silvers was awarded the designation of Kravis Center Life Trustee upon completion of her term.

Mr. Bracci provided an update on the Kravis 2020: The Future is Now Capital Campaign and expansion project then welcomed Ms. Mitchell back to the podium.

In a recap of the 2018-2019 season, Ms. Mitchell announced the annual fundraising goal of $6 million dollars had been met. She concluded the program saying, “Our programming, attendance and usage by the community of all of our facilities and venues continues at an extremely high level. As we build on the progress of the past and continue our capital campaign for this incredible project we are undertaking, I sincerely thank all of you for your continued leadership and support.”

On March 27, a special luncheon was held to honor and thank members of the Helen K. Persson Society for their confidence, trust and investment in the Kravis Center’s long-term future. Bernstein Private Wealth Management sponsored the luncheon for the 10th consecutive year.

"Today, we celebrate the vision of donors who share a commitment to ensure that the Kravis Center will endure and flourish for many generations to come," said Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO. “The Center takes seriously its goal to build a strong endowment fund, and I am pleased to report that the Fund now has a market value of $21.5 million.”

In 2008, the Kravis Center established the Helen K. Persson Society when Mrs. Persson graciously agreed to lend her name to the Center’s endowment effort. Mrs. Persson served as a member of the Board of Directors from 1992 to 2007 and was elected to the position of Life Trustee in 2007. The Society currently has 146 members.

Guest speakers, Evan Deoul, Senior Managing Director and Travis Allen, Senior Portfolio Manager and National Managing Director of Bernstein Private Wealth Management provided an insightful overview of the economic outlook. They shared with luncheon guests how to be more efficient in achieving their philanthropic goals and what to consider along with the new laws on charitable gifts recommending that investors look through the lenses of “return, risk and responsibility” when they plan to invest in philanthropy.

Following the presentation, Margaret May Damen, Kravis Center Planned Giving and Endowment Officer presented a special commemorative gift to new Persson Society members in attendance: Cathy Kraut Lewis Charitable Foundation, represented by Antonio Seminario, Jeff Piliero and Robert Robes of Wells Fargo Wealth Management and Philanthropic Services, Susan Mark, Jody Sherman, and Marilyn Siebrasse.

Members of the Helen K. Persson Society receive invitations to special events, acknowledgment in Kravis Center publications and other benefits based on level of commitment. For more information about the Helen K. Persson Society, please contact Margaret May Damen, Planned Giving and Endowment Officer at 561.651.4230, damen@kravis.org or visit kravis.org/endowment.

WHY I GIVE ...

“I am so grateful to my parents for exposing me to classic literature, visual arts, and performing arts at a very young age. As a young child in Kansas City, I will never forget the experience of attending my first live theater performance at the Starlight Theatre. It was a special night out for our family and even though this was an outdoor performance in the summer we all dressed up in our best clothes to attend. I remember being mesmerized watching the performers sing and dance and bring their roles to life in the production. I support the Kravis Center as an annual donor to help give that experience to young children who might not otherwise have the opportunity to see a live performance. I hope through the programs the Kravis Center offers for children that many will be inspired as I was and still am by live theater performances. By naming the Kravis Center as a beneficiary in my will, I know that my annual support can continue on indefinitely through the Endowment Fund.”

- Marilyn J. Siebrasse
The Kravis Center is excited to announce the 13th Annual Palm Beach Wine Auction, benefiting student arts education programs. It will be held on January 20, 2020, at 1000 NORTH, the exclusive fine dining venue with spectacular views of the Jupiter Inlet. Guests will be escorted to an extravagant cocktail party to begin the evening, where Krug Champagne will flow, cigars will be rolled and live music inspired by the Gipsy Kings band will fill the air.

Following the reception, guests will experience a five-course dinner with exquisite wine pairings along with a live auction of an astounding selection of ‘perfect score’ wines – those receiving a 100-point score. These rare bottles include Carter Cellars’ 2016 100-point GTO in 750ml format, magnums and 3-liter formats of extremely rare Guado al Tasso Mattarochio direct from Marchesi Piero Antinori’s cellar in Tuscany, magnums and 3-liter formats of 2016 Château Palmer, a 2004-2013 vertical in 3-liters from Antica, as well as 100-point cabernets from Napa Valley vintners including Beau Vigne, Colgin, Lokoya, Myriad, Realm and Vice Versa. Krug Champagne returns to the 2020 Auction as the signature Champagne for the evening, with the Grande Cuvée served to guests upon arrival and a 100-point 2002 vintage Krug as a highlight of the Auction catalog.

Renowned Napa Valley winemaker Mike Smith of Myriad Cellars has been responsible for many ‘perfect score’ wines offered at the Palm Beach Wine Auction throughout the years, including the Carter GTO.

“My goal is to make all eight barrels of the wine I make perfect,” said Smith. “The approach is to try to maximize the whole spectrum of farming, viticulture, barrel aging and all the way through to bottling.”
Add Palm Beach Wine Auction Founder and Chairman Ted Mandes, “For the Auction, we want the best wine that can be made with the tools the vintners have been given. Thanks to the skill of winemakers like Mike Smith, we are able to bring some truly exceptional wines to our event.”

The Palm Beach Wine Auction Sponsors are Premier Grand Cru: Milly and Patrick Park; Premier Cru: Broadrick Family Foundation, Tuny and David Page; Private Reserve: Jen and Ed Dudnyk, Susan Hurley Esson, Madeline and Roderic Fink, First Republic, Harriet and Ashley Hoffman, Imperial Wine Storage, Inc., The Lamelas Family Charitable Fund, Bill and Marilyn Lane Family Foundation, Jane M. Nearly 350 energetic young professionals escaped the summer heat by attending the 5th Annual “Sip of Summer” event on July 12 at The Norton Museum of Art. Young Friends members and future members from 13 local nonprofit organizations came together to celebrate making a difference in the South Florida community while enjoying drinks, desserts, movie-themed snacks and ‘Art After Dark’ programming at the Norton.

“Tonight’s attendees are a giving group of young professionals committed to supporting arts and culture in Palm Beach County,” said Stephanie Glavin, Young Friends of the Kravis Center Chair and Senior Vice President, Palm Beach County Local Market Manager, Bank of America. “Throughout the season, our group organizes events to support the Kravis Center’s arts education programs.”

“Each year this event gets bigger and attracts more young professionals looking for an added value to their Young Friends memberships,” said Talya Lerman, Development Manager and Young Friends Liaison at the Kravis Center.

Membership for Young Friends of the Kravis Center starts at $125 annually. For more information, please contact Talya Lerman, Development Manager, 561.651.4373 or lerman@kravis.org.
