2020 is here and we’re looking forward with anticipation to many more fabulous performances and unforgettable moments here at the Kravis Center. As we welcome the New Year, our season continues with the West Palm Beach premiere of one of Broadway’s biggest hits, Hamilton (January 28-February 16). Also coming up in our Kravis On Broadway series, the acclaimed new production of Miss Saigon (March 3-8) and Come From Away (March 31-April 5), the stunning true story of what transpired when 38 planes were ordered to land in the small town of Gander on September 11.

As we head into the New Year, we’re also excited to announce the addition of four shows to our lineup. The incomparable Diana Ross will perform on March 9, comedian Nate Bargatze will have you laughing out loud on April 26, Peppa Pig Live will be here to delight the kids on May 20 and Bill Maher will treat you to his unique brand of humor on June 27.

Our PEAK series features an array of edgy and intriguing performances, including the documentary play Seven, that weaves together the story of seven remarkable women from all over the world who faced life-threatening obstacles before bringing heroic changes to their countries (March 7-8); an exhilarating program of martial arts, dance and gymnastics by Japanese troop, Enra (April 1-2) and so many more.

Some of the world’s most highly revered symphony orchestras, ensembles and soloists, as part of our Regional Arts Classical Concert Series, will also take the stage—filling our grand concert hall with magnificent classical music. We are delighted to present a season of piano luminaries, including Polina Osetinskaya with the Russian State Symphony Orchestra (February 17) and Emanuel Ax with the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra (March 17).

On March 14, we will once again host our annual Gala fundraiser. This year we’re delighted to welcome superstar Josh Groban as he performs for Gala guests, who will also be treated to a cocktail reception and then dancing and an elegant dinner prepared by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center after the show.

At the Center, the New Year is marked by many exciting changes! Our new front plaza has quickly become a favorite spot for guests to gather and take photos—the new monument sign, fountain and expanded sidewalks make the perfect backdrop. Guests are also enjoying the added convenience of our brand new valet garage and the ease of the new entrance/exit ramp on the 4th floor of our self-parking garage. Attendees attending performances in Dreyfoos Hall now have additional restrooms as well as 6,000 more square feet to mingle and enjoy cocktails and refreshments from the bar and bistro.

Our $50 million expansion project, Kravis 2020: The Future is Now, will continue through spring with numerous improvements yet to come. If you’d like to find out how to participate in the project’s capital campaign, please visit kravis.org/kravis2020.

As always, I’d like to extend my gratitude for your continued support of our Center. Because of you, we are able to fulfill our mission of enhancing life for all those who live, work and play in Palm Beach County by providing world-class entertainment and comprehensive arts education programs for students of all ages.

All of us at the Kravis Center look forward to a memorable 2020 and sharing our season with you! ▲

A Night to Remember INSPIRES LOCAL STUDENTS

The ArtScholars program gives high school students who have a strong interest in the performing arts—along with an economic need—greater insight into their particular discipline by attending dinner discussions with special guest speakers and personally meeting distinguished artists who perform on the Kravis Center’s stages. Big Time Restaurant Group generously donates a full dining experience at City Cellar for the students during this program.

During the 2019-2020 school year, students from 11 area high schools will enjoy dinner and conversation with different artists prior to attending performances of Hamilton, Fiddler on the Roof and Koresh Dance Company, among others.

Several students who participated in ArtScholars during the 2018-2019 school year shared reflections on this unique and special experience:

“City Cellar was a wonderful restaurant to have dinner. The waiters were so kind and patient, it started the evening off perfectly,” said Thermella Nyahoza, who has since graduated from G-Star School of the Arts and attended Aquila Theatre’s production of A Midsummer Night’s Dream. “Speaking with the guest artist, Matt Stabile from Florida Atlantic University’s Theatre Lab, getting advice about certain aspects of theater and hearing about his directing style was amazing. His friendly personality wanting to include everyone, and how he went out of his way to really talk to us and make us feel comfortable, inspired me. Spending time with other students from different schools, and even from my own, really made my heart full. Being around others that love theater as much as I do was incredible.”

“The food was delicious and talking to Clarence Brooks, a dance professor from Florida Atlantic University, was so cool for me because as a professional dancer his work has such a huge impact on me,” said Preye Ford, who is a senior this year at Wellington Community High School and attended a performance of the modern dance group Pilobolus. “I loved meeting new people and Pilobolus was absolutely amazing. Watching people make cool shapes with their bodies and enjoy this art form is amazing. When I got to talk to the people in the show it was so inspiring to know certain aspects of a dancer. This was an incredible experience and I hope I will be able to enjoy a new show next year!”

The Kravis Center’s De George Academy for Performing Arts, now in the eighth of its planned twelve-year mission, supports Palm Beach County’s economically-disadvantaged third-through eighth-grade students’ efforts to attend Bak Middle School of the Arts, Dreyfoos School of the Arts or a performing arts college, or to embark on a career in the performing arts.

Approximately 80 students representing 16 Title I schools participated this summer in the De George Summer Launch, a weeklong workshop for current and incoming elementary youth, providing a sampling of performing arts experiences in theater, music, and ballet and modern dance with the opportunity to focus on specific interests. The third–through fifth-grade students studied with professional arts educators as well as high school-level De George Academy students who shared their own experiences and mentored the younger students.

During the 2019-2020 school year, more than 130 students – three times that of the program’s first year – are expected to participate in the Academy’s afterschool and weekend workshops. These workshops prepare Academy students for auditions for performing arts schools. The acceptance rate for De George Academy students at arts magnet schools is 50 percent, compared to only 25 percent for students not enrolled in the program. Students are nominated by arts teachers in their Title I home schools to participate in the De George Academy.

In September, De George Academy students experienced a performance of the play When She Had Wings at Florida Atlantic University’s Theatre Lab. Vocal and theater students were able to see their De George instructor, Matt Stabile, in action as the director of this performance. They were invited to give feedback and ask questions with the cast after the performance. Another special guest was in the audience, the playwright, Suzan Zeder. She joined the cast on stage and was excited to hear many interpretations of the story through the lens of the De George students. To conclude the magical afternoon, each student was invited to participate in Theatre Lab’s Future PAGES (Playwrights, Artists & Generations of Exciting Storytellers) Project, which provides students grades 3–12 the opportunity to share their voices and stories with the world. Should their original story be selected, one or more De George students will get the chance to perform on the Theatre Lab stage.

The De George Academy is generously funded by the Lawrence J. and Florence A. De George Charitable Trust. This spring, the De George Residency will mark its eighth year welcoming fifth- through eighth-grade students in a two-week artist residency program. Students will create an original production, to be performed in Persson Hall, under the guidance of teaching artists.

For more information about the De George Academy, or to help support the Kravis Center’s education mission, please call the development department at 561.651.4320 or visit kravis.org and click on Giving & Support.
The Kravis Center recently hosted 120 Palm Beach County educators for the sixth annual Educator Night, a fun and relaxed evening highlighting the Kravis Center’s 2019-2020 Main Stage Season. The free-of-charge annual event gives teachers the chance to see how the arts can enhance their classroom efforts, while offering them exclusive ticket opportunities and treating them to live performances throughout the evening.

Educators socialized over wine and hors d’oeuvres and enjoyed performances by Marika Aubrey, who plays Beverley Bass in the touring cast of Come from Away, and Johnbarry Green, who played Pseudolus in the MNM Theatre Company and Kravis Center Production of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum.

The real Beverley Bass, American Airlines’ first female captain, also was on hand to talk about her personal experience piloting one of the 38 passenger jets ordered to land in tiny Gander, Newfoundland on 9/11, as depicted in Come from Away.

Teachers attending Educator Night were treated to an exclusive ticket giveaway where more than 76 pairs of tickets for all performances throughout the 2019-2020 season were awarded, including those for blockbusters such as Fiddler on the Roof, The Play That Goes Wrong and Come from Away.

In addition, upcoming Professional Development workshops for teachers through the arts were announced highlighting the very best instructional practices in the field of arts integration. Jill Switzer, co-host of “The Morning Lounge with Jill and Rich” on Legends 100.3 FM, hosted Educator Night.

For more than 27 seasons, the Kravis Center has helped students of all ages fuel their imaginations and expand their lives through comprehensive arts education programs. Since 1992, 2.6 million students from Palm Beach, Broward, Martin, St. Lucie and Okeechobee counties have visited the Kravis Center, attending performances through the S*T*A*R Series and participating in a wide variety of educational programming. FOCUS ON THE 45TH

It’s still early in 2019/2020 season, the 45th anniversary of Regional Arts. But already the audience response to the opening concerts is heartwarming. In a memorable performance, pianist Olga Kern with National Symphony Orchestra of Ukraine presented a tremendous Rachmaninoff Piano Concerto No. 2 (Nov. 19).

Actually, this could be called a “season of piano power” with a remarkable line-up of soloists which also included David Fray with the Wroclaw Philharmonic Orchestra (Jan. 14), Khatia Buniatishvili with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra (Jan. 19), and continues with Polina Osetinskaya with the Russian State Symphony Orchestra (Feb. 17), and Emanuel Ax with the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra (March 17). We even had Beethoven’s birthday season covered, introduced beautifully by the duo of violinist Midori and another exceptional pianist, Jean-Yves Thibaudet (Jan. 5).

Upcoming, in a category of its own, is the West-Eastern Divan Ensemble, the now-20-year-old orchestra, based in Seville, Spain, consisting of musicians from countries in the Middle East, of young Egyptian, Iranian, Israeli, Jordanian, Lebanese, Palestinian, Syrian, and Spanish artists. Violinist Michael Barenboim, son of co-founder Daniel Barenboim, joins the sterling all-string group on its Kravis Center debut (Feb. 23).

FAST-FORWARD TO THE 46TH

For the 46th season in 2020/2021, here are three things to remember:

Chicago Symphony Orchestra

Cleveland Orchestra

Philadelphia Orchestra

That’s our own “big 3” list of American orchestras that will certainly raise next season to new heights. Yet these highlights merely touch the surface of 2020/2021, an exciting season of megastars that is not to be missed! ▲

The Kravis Center honored its Board of Directors and Life Trustees on Tuesday, November 5, in the Kravis Center’s exclusive Carl and Ruth Shapiro Founders’ Room.

As a harpist played, guests were greeted with cocktails and passed hors d’oeuvres. Judith Mitchell, the Kravis Center’s Chief Executive Officer, welcomed Kravis Center Board members and Life Trustees, expressing gratitude for their support and commitment to the Center.

“We are thrilled to host this reception in our Founders’ Room and to provide you all with a first-hand look at all the progress being made on our $50 million expansion project,” Ms. Mitchell noted.

Ms. Mitchell recognized Immediate Past Board Chair Michael Bracci for his leadership and accomplishments during his three years of service as Board Chair and presented a gift to him before welcoming him to the microphone.

“The Kravis Center has the most exceptional staff I’ve ever known, and I’ve chaired many non-profit boards over the course of my career,” said Mr. Bracci. “We are well on our way to meeting our Capital Campaign goal. We have more to do, but with this fantastic team in place, it’s not only going to be a great season but a successful campaign.”

Ms. Mitchell then welcomed Jeffrey Stoops as Board Chairman, and passed the conductor’s baton to him.

“It’s my honor to serve as the new Board Chairman, to work alongside our distinguished Board and Life Trustees as well as the incredible staff. This is an exciting time for the Kravis Center and our South Florida community. This impressive institution is nearing completion on its extensive expansion project, better serving our patrons and providing an exceptional experience to all who visit.”

In celebration of the 13th Annual Palm Beach Wine Auction, guests at the White Truffle Dinner, held on December 2, were treated to four courses of fine Italian cuisine infused with rare tartufo bianco d’Alba at Café Sapori. The evening’s truffle delights were paired with select wines from Italy, Burgundy and the Sonoma and Willamette Valleys. The dinner was sponsored by Jen and Ed Dudnyk.

Auction Founder and Chairman Ted Mandes welcomed over 80 guests to the dinner by saying, “We’re here because of the more than 80,000 students the Kravis Center reaches with its arts education programs every year.” Mr. Mandes thanked Café Sapori’s hosts Francesco Blanco and Fabrizio Giorgi, as well as the Auction’s sponsors, committee members and supporters.

Guests enjoyed an exquisite four-course meal of truffle-infused delights. The antipasto course featured individual polenta cakes with porcini mushrooms and Parmigiano and truffle sauce, paired with a 2016 Domenica Amato Chardonnay from Bacigalupi Vineyards. This was followed by a first course of housemade veal paté ravioli in butter and sage sauce with shitake mushrooms and spinach ricotta ravioli with shaved truffles, accompanied by a 2016 Pinot Noir Block 18 Pommard from Willamette.

The entrée featured a roasted veal loin in mascarpone and truffle sauce with creamy potatoes and braised cabbage and apple, served with a 2014 Louis Baisinert Nuits-Saint-Georges Premier Cru. For dessert, guests were treated to crispy pastry with chocolate mousse, bananas and truffle ice cream, accompanied by a glass of Domenica Amato Appiccoso.

On December 13, the Young Friends of the Kravis Center gathered in Great Gatsby style at a reception held prior to a Kravis On Broadway performance of The Play That Goes Wrong, which features a hilariously madcap 1920s-era murder mystery that unfolds amidst collapsing sets and other intentional “mishaps.”

The dessert reception, held in the Kravis Center’s Ellen and Robert M. Jaffe Windsor Room, offered guests champagne and decadent desserts as they mingled in vintage fashions such as sparkly flapper dresses and newsboy caps.

“Throughout the season, our group is also active in organizing events to support the Kravis Center’s arts education programs,” said Stephanie Glavin, Young Friends of the Kravis Center Chair and Senior Vice President, Palm Beach County Local Market Manager, Bank of America. “A Young Friends membership is a wonderful way to make a difference in the lives of area students as well as make new connections with other like-minded professionals.”

“Our Young Friends group has been a vital part of the Kravis Center membership and is committed to supporting arts and culture in Palm Beach County,” said Talya Lerman, Kravis Center Development Manager and Young Friends Liaison.

Membership for Young Friends of the Kravis Center starts at $125 annually. For more information, please contact Talya Lerman, Development Manager, at 561.651.4373 or lerman@kravis.org.

Imagine making a lasting impact on your community for generations to come with your gift.

A gift that brings enriching, awe-inspiring and joy-filled experiences to people of all ages and ensures these unforgettable moments will continue into the future.

When you give a legacy gift to the Kravis Center’s Endowment Fund, you’ll be among an esteemed group of discerning donors who wish to help us continue our mission of enhancing the quality of life in Palm Beach County. Your support today secures our future tomorrow—and will ensure that the Kravis Center retains its reputation as South Florida’s premier center for the performing arts and the community’s top cultural attraction.

The Kravis Center recognizes your generosity as a member of the Helen K. Persson Society (or respects your wishes to remain anonymous).

For information about the Helen K. Persson Society, please contact Margaret May Damen, CFP®, CLU®, ChFC®, CAP® Endowment and Planned Giving Officer at 561.651.4230 or damen@kravis.org or visit kravis.org/endowment.

WHY I GIVE ...

“I urge everyone who enjoys the Kravis Center to consider the part we can each perform in preserving it and keeping it open, lively, and healthy. Since 1992 we have reveled in the variety and quality of every type of musical entertainment at our Kravis Center. It is a treasure in my life, and it enriches me time and again, making life in the Palm Beaches special.

The Kravis Center has depended on the generosity of the extraordinary few, of the significantly successful among us who have achieved much in life and who have generously chosen to give back and to fund the Kravis Center with very substantial contributions. I myself cannot do what others in our community can with their very large contributions. But I do benefit, and I do want the Kravis Center to continue. That is why I have chosen to include the Kravis Center in my will, modest though it may be. It is a big building, quite complex (take a tour), and involved in our Palm Beach County community with our schools, with seniors, with multiple arts organizations, and with hosting events which do not make money. In fact, actual ticket revenue and other earned income accounts for only 80% of the annual costs of operating our Kravis Center. The Kravis Center actually needs the support of us all for it to carry forward.

My heirs are not desperate. They are not relying on the little bit I will leave behind to survive. So I want to gift those arts organizations and charities which actually make a difference. At the time of my death I want to reward, and I want to help. Just think what good could be done if every one of us seniors (I am over 65) would include the Kravis Center in our wills? Gifts of $5,000 or $10,000 or $20,000, multiplied many times over, will preserve what we all love.

Please join me, and consider putting the Kravis Center amongst the beneficiaries in your estate. And be proud of what we can all accomplish together.”

Persson Society and their generosity is recognized with invitations to Persson Society events, acknowledgement in Kravis Center publications and other benefits based on the level of their donation. Embrace is the sculpture in plaster in the lobby by Alexander Liberman which actually make a difference. At the time of my death I want to reward, and I want to help. Just think what good could come of that! Please join me, and consider putting the Kravis Center amongst the beneficiaries in your estate. And be proud of what we can all do together.

In fact, actual ticket revenue and other earned income accounts for only 80% of the revenue the Kravis Center needs to operate. 80% of their revenue is earned, but 20% is given and the bulk of that is the Persson Society. Since 1995, the Persson Society has given the Kravis Center over $50 million. You can be part of the Persson Society, you will receive our listings of events, invitations to signature events, recognition of your generosity in our literature, and the highest level of seating priority. In addition, you will have the opportunity of helping decide which portraits of past Founders are included in our Founder’s Hall.

Additional benefits include the highest level of seating priority, invitations to the most signature events and recognition of your generosity. Your support today helps sustain our artistic and educational excellence for future artists, audiences, and students.
